PARK & RIDE LOTS

What could be easier than parking your car and being whisked by bus to the heart of Downtown Seattle? There are 90 Park & Ride lots around King County; a few are shown on the map to the left. Complete maps and brochures can be found at <http://transit.metrokc.gov>.

TRANSIT CENTERS

Transit Centers are hubs where bus routes converge, or where bus routes connect with other modes of transportation, (i.e. cars and rail.)

BICYCLE LOCKERS

Did you know you can rent a locker to store your bike and personal belongings at many Park & Ride lots? For leasing information, contact the Bicycle Alliance of Washington at 206.224.9252.

LOVE OLD BUSES?

The Metro Employees Historic Vehicle Association (MEHVA) offers tours and excursions in historic trolleys and old motor buses. Details at 206.684.1816 or www.mehva.org.
